Drake State is committed to serving its community as the primary provider of workforce development education and training. Through its Workforce Development Division, the College provides a number of services and programs designed to provide workforce development for employers located in the College’s service area.

January Classes Begin

- Basic Life Support—January 18th
- Certified Nursing Assistant Program—January 21st

February Classes Begin

- Basic Life Support—February 1st and 15th
- Certified Nursing Assistant Program—February 3rd and 17th
- Microsoft Word—February 4th and 6th
- Construction Skills Training Program—February 10th
- Renewable Energy Certification—February 17th
- Valentine Decadence Pastry Class—February 13th
- Microsoft PowerPoint—February 18th and 20th

March Classes Begin

- Basic Life Support—March 1st and 15th
- Certified Nursing Assistant Program—March 3rd and 17th
- Certified Culinary/Hospitality Assistant—March 4th
- Microsoft Excel—March 4th and 6th
- Financial Planning—March 6th and 13th and repeats 11th and 18th
- You and Your Digital Camera—March 8th
- Ready to Work—March 10th
- Electrician Journeyman Exam Preparation—March 10th
- Couponing and Online Shopping—March 12th
- American Sign Language: First Responders—March 25th

Spring Schedule 2014

January — March

Online Course Offerings

Looking to gain a certification, change your current career path or simply develop new skills? You can do so from the convenience of your own home!

Drake State Community and Technical College offers a variety of online training programs and continuing education courses. Current online courses include:

- CISCO Certification
- CompTIA Certification
- Medical Billing and Coding Certification
- Web Design
- Writing and Publishing
- Spanish
- And Many More!

Customized Training for your Business

As a member of The Training for Existing Business and Industry Network (TEBIN), Drake State Community and Technical College is well equipped to provide customized training in a variety of technical, manufacturing and healthcare disciplines. The TEBIN is the premier professional development organization for advancing workforce development education in the Alabama College System. TEBIN programs prepare employees for the work challenges of today and tomorrow!

For information on establishing customized training for your organization, please contact: wfd@drakestate or 256-551-5219